

BARNARD GIRLS WIN WITH 'DRY' DRAMA

The loyalty and convictions of the suffragists of Barnard College have just been submitted to the severest and most cruel test known to history. And the suffrage girls had suffered pangs. They had been informed that the anti-suffrage entertainment was to be a low comedy. But they were faithful to a man-to-a-girl-and the suffrage drama was presented to an enthusiastic audience. (Chautauque notes.)

entitled "How They Won the Vote." Appended to the advertisement was the announcement that no refreshments would be served. (Grouse.) The alert anti-suffrage girls saw an opening. They advertised an entertainment, with low cream on the side, to take place at the very same hour as the refreshment-less drama. (Grouse.) Came the fated time. In the interval

Major John F. Hanson Dead. ATLANTA, Dec. 15.—Major John F. Hanson, President of the Central of Georgia Railroad, and one of the best known railroad officials in the South, died here early today of heart failure.

LAZANSKY AND KOENIG RETURN ON SAME SHIP. Newly Elected Secretary of State and Man He Defeated Meet in Bermuda.

By a strange coincidence Secretary of State-elect Edward Lazansky and his bride and Samuel S. Koenig, the president ent member of the office, whom Lazansky defeated for reelection, and his wife were passengers on the steamship "Trent," which arrived today from Bermuda. Both had gone to recuperate from the rigors of the campaign, but by different steamers. They met in Hamilton, Bermuda, and became cronies. They spoke with great gusto of a baseball game they witnessed at Hamilton between the Jackies of the United States ship Solace and the players of the hotel. The feature of the game was the umpiring of an old dog, Capt. James Holmes. He was model of propriety and politeness. He announced his decisions thus: "Beg pardon, you're out." "Strike two—I thank you very much, sir."

Duke Gifts $100,000 More. DUKHAM, N. C., Dec. 15.—Two new buildings will be added to Trinity College as a result of an additional gift of $100,000 by Benjamin Duke.

Are You a Patron of Our Restaurant?

HAVE you ever eaten in our Restaurant on the 8th Floor? It is a large and most inviting place, high above the roar and bustle of the streets. It is just the sort of dining place that's most appreciated by the shopper, the tourist or the business man or woman who wants good food appetizingly served. The portions are ample, the service prompt, the table appointments correct and the prices moderate. Special dishes are served daily. The particular dish for Friday is "Baked Sea Trout a la Portu-gaise, with potato croquette." And on Saturday "Capon Croquette with Asparagus Tips." Suppose you visit the Restaurant to-morrow. You'll be immensely pleased. The Teas and Coffees are above criticism, and the Deserts delicious.

Diagonal Suits
Cheviot Suits
Boucle & Rough Weave Suits
Smart Mixture Suits

The story of the sale is quickly told: Several prominent manufacturers, concerns that cater to the best trade in the metropolis, were eager to sell without loss of time all their showroom samples and cancellations. They literally sacrificed the suits to sell them quickly. We purchased as eagerly as they sold. The suits are in the latest fashions—either plain or cleverly trimmed. They have the newest model skirts, and are richly lined with peau de cygne or guaranteed satin. In every detail a splendid assembly of beautiful tailored suits.
